

“Tarleton’s Quarter!”

Addenda as of Mar. 1, 2015

The Rules:

Counter Diagrams, Infantry: “L” type is missing. They are Loyalist Militia (Provincials)

2.0 Game Terms

Forts (clarification): The counter mix is the limit to the number of forts that may be built on the board.

Strength Points (clarification): These are treated like money and can be exchanged to reflect consolidation or casualties. (i.e., A 20 SP regular unit suffers 3 SPs of casualties. The owning player will remove the 20 SP unit and replace it with a 10 SP + 5 SP +2 SP counters of the same type. A player has 5 one SP units of the same type in an area, he could remove the 5 and place one same type 5 SP unit there). The counter mix is the maximum SP level that any type of unit can ever be on the board.

8.0 Last Paragraph, last sentence (correction): change “8.4” to “8.3”

8.1 Activation (addition): Add “, recruit” after “move” to the sentence

8.1.1 (addition): "A Leader that activates during an endeavor is flipped to his moved side at the end of the endeavor and the forces that activated with him may not participate in another endeavor that month."

8.2 Rain and Flood (clarification/correction): The last sentence of this rule should be rule 8.3.6.

8.3.3 Rain (clarification): Rain lasts for the endeavor.

10.2 C-in-C (clarification): This is for the area that they are in only.

10.5.10 Amphibious Landing (clarification): Eligible Landing areas are:

Virginia: 1, 2, 17, 18, 19, 28, 29, 30

North Carolina: 1, 16, 17, 35, 36, 37, 39, 40, 42, 43, 44, 45.

South Carolina: 1, 2, 9, 10, 11, 13, 24

Georgia: 1

11.2.6 (clarification): If there is more than one non-C-in-C leader with the same audacity rating, randomly select the leader that becomes the casualty.

11.3 Retreat before Combat (clarification): Retreat before Combat is a really a "Withdrawal" before combat and the withdrawing units are moved like a retreat. It is not a combat result and thus there is no “winner” or “loser”.

11.3.1 (clarification): “Legally move to” means the conditions stipulated in rule 11.4 for retreat.

11.4.5 (addition): Please add "or are alone (no friendly SPs) in an area after combat" after "retreat" in the first line.

14.1.5 (addition): French Forces and Leaders are placed in any friendly coastal area on their turn of arrival OR they can perform an Amphibious Landing similar the British (Case 10.5.10).

Section 15.2 (addition) Please add "and after combat" after "when enemy SP enter that area".

17.4 Free Deployment Campaign (correction): Second sentence should say December 1778.

17.4.2 Continental Set Up (addition): NC Leader Ashe with 15SP of NC militia should be added to this list.
